

Educate Peace Officers. Shape the Future. Share Your Experience.

Be a Police Academy Instructor

The ACADEMY

<http://theacademy.ca.gov>

The Academy is looking for motivated people to instruct in the Basic Course, the Basic Academy Modular and the Requalification Course. There are several topics available at the Monterey Peninsula College, San Mateo, Evergreen and Gavilan Police Academies, so call today to get started!

List of Topics

Ethics
Criminal Justice Systems
Community Policing
Victimology
Crisis Intervention
Criminal Law
Property Crimes
Crimes Against Persons
Criminal Justice Statutes
Crimes Against Children
Sex Crimes
Juvenile Law
Narcotics
ABC Law

Law of Arrest
Search and Seizure
Presentation of Evidence
Report Writing
EVOG
Use of Force
Patrol Procedures
Car Stops
Crimes in Progress
Handling Disputes
Crowd Control
Domestic Violence
Unusual Occurrences
Missing Persons

Traffic Investigation
Accident Investigation
Preliminary Evidence
Physical Training
Defensive Tactics
First Aid / CPR
Firearms
Information Systems
Persons with Disabilities
Gangs
Crimes Against the Justice System
Weapons Violation
Hazardous Materials
Cultural Diversity

Qualifications

Instructors must possess an Associate of Arts degree and six-years experience or a Bachelor's degree and two-years experience. Some subjects require instructor certification per POST regulation 10-70 (i.e., Defensive Tactics, Firearms, Driving, CPR, Hazardous Materials, Racial Profiling, PT). All instructors must complete a POST Academy Instructor Certification Course (AICC) prior to submission of an application.

Contact

Interested individuals should contact the Basic Academy Director at (408) 229-4299.