

South Bay Regional Public
Safety Training Consortium
&
The Hollister Fire Department

ICS-300

Hollister Fire Station 1
110 Fifth St. Hollister, CA. 95023
October 28 – 30, 2013 from 09:00 - 17:00
$105 per person. Class is limited to 25 participants.

Course Overview

This course covers organization and staffing, organizing for incidents and events, resource management, and air operation.

Course Objectives

Describe how the NIMS Command and Management component supports the management of expanding incidents. Describe the incident/event management process for expanding incidents and supervisors as prescribed by the Incident Command System. Implement the incident management process on a simulated Type 3 incident. Develop an Incident Action Plan for a simulated incident.

Topics

- ICS Fundamentals Review
- Unified Command
- Incident/Event Assessment and Agency Guidance in establishing
- Incident Objectives
- Incident Resources Management
- Planning Process
- Demobilization, Transfer of Command and Close Out

Your Instructor: Stewart Roth - Stew has been a student of this great profession for over 34 years, starting his career as a Student Fire Fighter at age 16 with the Carmel Highlands Fire Protection District. Since that time he has held positions of Fire Fighter in the Mid-Carmel Valley Fire Protection District and the City of Pacific Grove Fire Department. He has worked his way up the ranks including Engineer, Captain, Battalion Chief and now serves as a Division Chief with Monterey Fire Department in charge of the B-Platoon. While as a Division Chief, he spent 13 years in Training / Safety and Special Operations as both an Operations Chief for Monterey County US&R team and now as a Plans Team Manager and Safety Officer for California Urban Search and Rescue Task Force 3. Stew has been instructor with the Monterey Peninsula College Fire Science Program for over 30 years and currently coordinates their Fire Fighter 1 Academy as well as lectures in their Chief Officer Command and Leadership Programs. Stew has instructed with the "Nobody Gets Left Behind" Training Group since its inception. In 2005 Stew was chosen as "Training Officer of the Year", by the California State Fire Fighters Association for his creative training and influence in California's Training Programs. Stew has an Associates Degree in Fire Science, a Bachelors Degree in Business Management and a Masters Degree in Business Administration. Additionally, he holds California Fire Instructor III and Chief Officer certifications and was recently awarded his Chief Fire Officer Designee (CFOD) from the Center for Public Safety Excellence.

Registration deadline is Wednesday, Oct. 23rd @ 16:00 in person or over the phone.

4075 San Felipe Road, San Jose, CA 95135

For all inquiries call (408) 270-6458 or email Veronica Chihuahua at vchihuahua@theacademy.ca.gov