

BECOME AN AGENT TODAY!

Have you ever considered becoming a plain clothes officer with an opportunity to conduct undercover investigations to help your community?

Would you like to earn a monthly income of $3,397 - $4,506 with entry-level qualifications or $4,331 to $7,860 (maximum salary increasing to $8,017 over the next two years) by having a bachelor's degree or law enforcement experience?

Who we are:

ABC Agents and Agent Trainees are peace officers empowered to enforce any and all penal provisions throughout the state, and are tasked with regulating the state's alcoholic beverage industry. Agents work cooperatively with federal, state and local law enforcement partners to enforce the law and safeguard communities.

Do you qualify?

If you meet ANY of the entrance qualifications listed below, ABC will accept your application for the next Agent Trainee/Agent exam in November 2017.

Qualifications:

- Any Bachelor's Degree (early entry to exam for students in their senior year of college);
- Two years of experience as a peace officer performing investigative work as part of their regular enforcement activity.
- Two years of college (60 semester units) with a major in criminal justice, law enforcement, criminology, administration of justice, or police science (early entry to exam for students who have completed 30 units in college with at least 9 units in criminal justice, law enforcement, criminology, administration of justice or police science);
- High School diploma and two years of active duty military service performing law enforcement or security functions;
- High School diploma and graduation from a POST-certified police academy

Apply today by mailing a state application (attached), criminal record questionnaire (attached), and a copy of your unofficial transcripts to 3927 Lennane Drive, Suite 100 Sacramento, CA 95834. Applications must be postmarked by September 29, 2017.
