

Public Safety

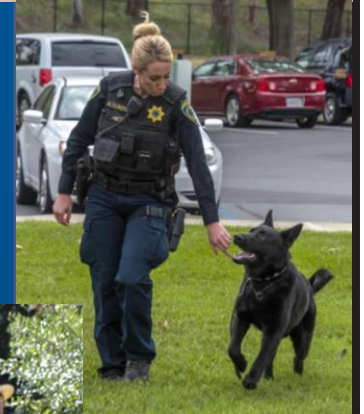

The East Bay Regional Park District Public Safety Division welcomes you to your regional trails and parklands where 15.7 million annual visitors enjoy the largest Regional Park system in the United States.

We are dedicated to providing a safe recreational environment while preserving parkland resources, which include over 1,250 miles of trails in addition to 73 parks that cover 1,750 square miles throughout Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

During our peak summer season, the Public Safety Division is staffed by approximately 500 personnel, which includes 151 full-time equivalent employees – 70 of whom are sworn police officers. In addition, the division employs 195 seasonal lifeguards, utilizes 48 on-call firefighters who hold various positions throughout the District, and includes 175 members of a Volunteer Trail Safety Patrol.

Thank you for your interest in Public Safety at the East Bay Regional Park District and for taking the time to learn more about the services and programs we offer.
